

2014 WV Brownfields Conference Call for Presentations

The WV Brownfields Conference is West Virginia's premier redevelopment event that combines educational programs with networking opportunities between communities, local governments, development professionals, and service providers. The conference features expert panels, interactive workshops, technical training, and project case studies.

The West Virginia Brownfields Assistance Centers want to expand on past conference successes, and are currently seeking presentation proposals to fill limited slots for the 2014 WV Brownfields Conference in Huntington, WV on September 11-12. Presentations should address brownfield and redevelopment related topics. Example topics include:

- remediation
- liability and risk mitigation
- public engagement
- legal and regulatory issues
- project planning strategies
- finance and funding mechanisms
- site redevelopment/business issues
- transit-oriented development
- other redevelopment related ideas, case studies, best practices
- unique remediation approaches or redevelopment strategies

To submit your presentation proposal, complete the attached form with your name, organization, contact information, presentation title, and brief presentation summary details to carico@marshall.edu. The deadline for presentation proposals is March 3, 2014. Interested entities can submit up to two presentation proposals.
